

OWNERS PLEASE READ CAREFULLY AND COMPLETE THE ATTACHED AUTHORIZATION FORM IN ITS ENTIRETY! ******

Dear Owners,

Please take a moment to review a few of our policies, procedures and recommendations to ensure a smooth rental season for 2019:

Procedure for reporting Owner Reservations or Changes to Authorization: If you rent a week yourself (even if you have reported to another CHRIS agency), or request any changes to rates, amenities, bedding, etc. PLEASE submit this request in writing to oceansideadmin@comcast.net or by fax to 609-361-1759. We appreciate your compliance, as it is important to document all changes to avoid confusion or problems later on.

Garbage Cans: Please provide an adequate amount of garbage/recycling cans for your home's occupancy. A good rule of thumb is ½ can per occupant. Please clearly label recycling cans with labels provided by your township, and conspicuously post trash and recycling schedules.

Internet Access: Please provide the internet network name and password in the space provided on your rental authorization form as well as posting conspicuously in the home. This will save many phone calls to you regarding internet use!

Dining Tables: Please make every effort to provide a dining table or tables in the same area that can accommodate your maximum occupancy. One of the most common complaints we have is that there is not enough seating together for the number of people the home accommodates, so occupants have a difficult time eating together.

Beach Badges: If you provide beach badges, please leave in a conspicuous place or in a container that is clearly marked.

Cleaning: Please provide your cleaning crews with our contact number and instruct them to contact us if they should ever have a problem completing cleaning by check-in time. Also, instruct your cleaning crews to contact you immediately if a tenant leaves a property in unacceptable condition and to document these conditions with cellphone photos, which should be sent as soon as possible to the rental agent. Cleanliness of properties is one of the most common complaints so please make sure your expectations for your cleaning crews include checking under beds and other furnishings for dirt/debris, sweep and mop/disinfect all hard floor surfaces, thoroughly clean and disinfect all aspects of bathrooms and kitchens, check cabinets and drawers for food and crumbs, dust all surfaces, clean smudges off windows and glass surfaces, check bedding to insure cleanliness. If you have a large home and the cleaning crew needs a larger window of time, you should consider changing your check-in/check-out times.

Spring Cleaning: We ask that you complete a thorough spring cleaning prior to the beginning of each rental season. This includes blinds, curtains, baseboards and moldings, air/heat vents, kitchen/bathroom cabinets, bedding and carpeting, walls.

Bedding: Please ensure mattress pads are freshly laundered and stain-free. New mattress pads are a small investment to make your tenants feel comfortable and clean. Please use pillow protectors that are easily laundered and have a few extra on hand. Please have the cleaning crew visually check the mattress pads each week for stains/hair.

Bath/Bathroom Mats: If you provide bath mats, please have several sets on hand so your cleaning people can provide fresh, clean and dry mats for each tenant.

Grills/Propane Tanks: Please make an effort to provide full tanks for each renter. We also suggest you have an extra full tank on hand. We will instruct tenants to fill tanks if found empty and submit the receipts for reimbursement by you. Dirty/poorly maintained grills are another one of the most common rental complaints. Please ask your cleaners to check your grill, if possible, or make other arrangements for maintaining your grill during the rental season.

Owner Instruction Books/information sheets left on tables or refrigerators. Books containing information about your house and expectations for your guests' behavior and use of your home are wonderful and appreciated. However, please do not put information about issues that you will hold your tenant liable for via a security deduction solely in your book. Anything of that nature must be clearly stated in the lease addendum that will become part of your tenants' leases. For example, if you leave towels that the tenants may use, you tell tenants this in your book, and the tenants leave them wet in the dryer, do not expect to collect an extra cleaning deduction if your cleaners have to dry and fold them. You MUST state in your lease addendum "tenant will be charged $25 extra cleaning fee if towels are not washed, dried, folded and returned to linen closet,"....and so on.

Security Holds: Although we make every effort to educate the tenant on how he/she should leave the property upon checkout, occasionally problems do occur. Our rental authorization and lease require the owner to notify Oceanside Realty in WRITING within 72 hours of any damages that may result in a security deduction to the tenant and we ask that you include photos to document the damage. We ask you accomplish this via email to oceansideadmin@comcast.net or to the rental agent. Please understand that although we will make every effort to facilitate an agreement between landlord and tenant in a security dispute, Oceanside Realty does not have any authority to determine liability and will simply continue to hold the disputed amount of the security in our escrow until some agreement is reached, or a determination is made by a court of law.

Property Photos: Please take the time to review your photos by accessing them online on Oceanside's website at www.lbirealty.com -just go to your listing# and click the link under the main photo. Please ensure that they are current and updated, especially in terms of furnishings, renovations and views. We encourage you to take photos yourself (cell phone photos work wonderfully, please just make sure to use plenty of light and remove clutter!) and email them to us at oceansideadmin@comcast.net. If you provide photos, please include every bedroom and bathroom, stairways, multiple views of kitchens and living spaces, all decks, yards and views. With the majority of people renting online, the more pictures included with the property information, the better the potential renters will be able to visualize your property as if they are walking through it.

Property description/narrative: We would appreciate it if you would provide a basic description of the layout of the home. EX:

Ground floor – foyer, rec room

1st floor – double bunk bedroom, twin bedroom, jack and jill bathroom, queen jr suite, laundry closet

2nd floor – king master bedroom, kitchen, dining area, living room, half bath

Also, if you would like to provide a narrative for your home, we welcome your input. Once again, the more information the better, to make your home as appealing as possible to tenants looking at properties online.

Thank you again for choosing Oceanside Realty as your rental agency for 2019! We look forward to another successful season!

~John Franzoni, Broker/Owner and the entire Oceanside Realty Team

SUBJECT: Housing Discrimination Laws

The New Jersey Real Estate Commission requires every licensed broker or salesperson with whom you list your property to give you a copy of this notice. The purpose is to help you comply with the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (the “LAD”) and federal laws prohibiting discrimination in the sale or rental of real property.

In New Jersey, it is illegal to discriminate against a prospective or current buyer or tenant because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, gender identity or expression, marital status, civil union status, affectional or sexual orientation, familial status, pregnancy or breastfeeding, actual or perceived physical or mental disability, ancestry, nationality, domestic partner status, source of lawful income used for mortgage or rental payments, or liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States. It is also illegal to place any advertisement or make any statements or utterances that express, directly or indirectly, any limitations to offer housing or real estate based on any of those characteristics.

State and federal fair housing laws apply to a wide range of activities such as advertising, selling, renting, leasing, subleasing, assigning, and showing property (including open land). Here are some issues that come up frequently in enforcing the LAD:

- Discrimination based on “source of lawful income used for mortgage or rental payments,” means, for example, that a landlord cannot reject a prospective tenant because he or she intends to rely on a Section 8 rental voucher, FEMA voucher issued to Superstorm Sandy victims, or other types of rent subsidies.
- A “No Pets” rule cannot be enforced to prevent a person with a disability from using a service or guide dog. A landlord may not charge a tenant with a disability an extra fee for keeping a service or guide dog.

- Discrimination based on “familial status” prohibits discrimination against families with a child or children under 18 years old, and includes pregnant women.
- Landlords must permit a tenant with a disability—at that tenant’s own expense—to make reasonable modifications to the premises if such modifications are needed to give the tenant full enjoyment of the premises.

Penalties. If you commit a discriminatory housing practice that violates the LAD, you may be subject to penalties not exceeding $10,000 for a first violation, not exceeding $25,000 for a second violation within five years of the first offense, and not exceeding $50,000 for two or more violations within seven years.

Other remedies. Victims of discrimination may recover economic damages related to the discrimination (such as having to pay higher rent for another unit) as well as damages for emotional distress, pain and humiliation. In more egregious cases, a victim may also recover punitive damages.

Brokers. The broker or salesperson with whom you list your property must transmit to you every written offer he/she receives on your property. Brokers and salespersons are licensed by the New Jersey Real Estate Commission and their activities are subject to the general real estate laws of the State and the Commission’s own rules and regulations. The broker or salesperson must refuse your listing if you indicate an intent to discriminate based on any of the protected classes.

Exemptions. The sale or rental of property (including open land) whether for business or residential purposes, is covered by the LAD. In most cases, the following sales or rentals are exempt from the LAD¹:

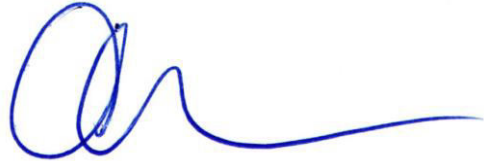

- Renting one apartment in a two-family dwelling if the owner lives in the other apartment.
- Renting a room or rooms in a one-family dwelling if the owner lives in the same dwelling.
- A religious organization can give preference to persons of the same religion when selling or renting real property.
- In certain types of housing designated for older persons, it is not unlawful to discriminate based on familial status.

For more information about the LAD and Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, or if you have other questions about discrimination in the sale or rental of real property, including how to report a complaint, please review our website www.NJCivilRights.gov or call our Housing Hotline at (866) 405-3050. Please contact us if you would like the Division on Civil Rights to provide training on the subject of housing discrimination. Thank you.
